SUMMARY

I am Vipula S Anandapiya, a seasoned engineer, consultant, lecturer, and Chief Technical Officer (CTO) with a strong software development and technology background. With over 20 years of experience in the field, I have had the privilege of working on diverse projects and contributing to the growth of various organizations.

Currently, I serve as an O/L and A/L ICT lecturer and a University Visiting Lecturer, where I share my knowledge and expertise in Laravel and AWS. I am committed to shaping the education of students in schools and pursuing degrees in Software Engineering and Cloud Computing, ensuring they are equipped with the skills and knowledge needed for the industry.

My dedication to education and corporate consulting has been integral to my career. I have been actively involved in private consulting and lecturing, providing valuable insights into software architecture, mobile and web technologies, and PHP/Laravel frameworks. I have also conducted tech talks, meetups, and workshops, fostering knowledge-sharing and coaching development teams to meet the requirements of overseas clients.

As the Chief Technical Officer and Co-Founder of Adlux Software, I was pivotal in establishing the company as a leading Laravel and open-source software development solutions provider. With a focus on high-availability applications, we successfully delivered projects across Sri Lanka, the USA, Australia, and Europe.

With my extensive experience, excellent communication skills, and passion for continuous learning, I aim to be the best ICT lecturer in Sri Lanka and positively impact software development.
